

Westside Metros Soccer Club Refund and Release Policy

All Westside Metros Soccer Club fees are non-refundable. If the player chooses to leave the club or transfer to another Club at any time, no portion of the fee is refundable. If a player is injured in such a manner that the player is unable to participate in the remainder of the seasonal year, the Director of Operations will make a determination if any part of the fee is refundable. To request a refund due to a season-ending injury, a medical doctor's letter must accompany the written request verifying the injury and that the injury prevents the player from participating. If the player moves beyond a reasonable travel distance before the end of the season, a portion of the yearly club fee may be refunded.

Transfer or release of the player will only be granted if all player's fees and financial obligations have been fulfilled to the Club and Team. Failure to fulfill a player's financial obligations to the Club and Team may result in the player being placed "Not in Good Standing" with the Club, which could result in the player's playing privileges being suspended until the obligations are fulfilled. This may also impact the player's ability to register in the future with other Clubs.
